Understanding Poverty

Tuesday, November 17, at 7pm at the Healing Center
As we approach the holidays with many opportunities to serve in a variety of cultural settings, the Healing Center will be hosting a seminar to help you to better understand those we serve throughout Cincinnati. How do we serve and empower rather than enable the poor? What are some of the hidden rules that would be helpful to know? Register at vineyardcincinnati.com.

The Christian Marketplace Network's 6th Annual Expo and Trade Fair will be on Friday, Nov. 20 in the Big Room. Admission is free and open to the public. It will feature over 30 exhibits of local Christian-owned businesses, and former Congressman Steve Chabot as keynote speaker. Go to vineyardcincinnati.com and search for "expo" for more info.

Arise! Cry Out! Join women from around the world as we pray for our children and schools. This live recorded prayer event will take place on Nov. 14 from 9am–1pm in the Healing Center Auditorium. Presented by Moms in Touch International. Register at vineyardcincinnati.com (search for "arise") or call Ext. 237.

High School Fall Weekend: Don't miss this two-night getaway for students in grades 9–12 at Camp Swoneky on Nov. 6–8. Cost is $99 and can be paid online at www.vineyardcincinnati.com under Students/first time here?

Don't panic! No one is going to single you out or ask you to stand up and give your name. Grab a free cup of coffee or tea, bring it into the Auditorium and relax. Here are a few things we do most weekends...

Singing

We usually sing some simple songs to God each weekend. Feel free to have a seat anytime. Some people like to stand the entire time. Just be comfortable.

Giving

For those who value the mission of this place and are learning to give, this is a time to give back to God a portion of what He's given us.

Message

Our speaker will give a 25 to 30 minute message about applying God's truths to life's challenges.

Want More Info?

Stop by Connections in the Atrium if you have any questions or to find out more about the Vineyard. We're glad you're here!
